Camp Staff

Troy Doering, Head Coach

Troy Doering is in his fifth season as MSOE's head baseball coach. Doering started his collegiate baseball career at Triton College in River Grove Illinois. During his first season, Doering was named second team all-conference as a second baseman and competed in the 2000 Division 1 Junior College World Series located in Grand Junction Colorado. In his second year at Triton, Doering earned first team All-Conference honors as a outfielder. He was also named team captain for the 2001 season. After earning a scholarship to the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Doering was selected first team All-Conference as a utility player in both seasons. Doering played a key role for the Panthers in 2002, as they won the conference tournament, earning a bid to the NCAA tournament. During his senior season at UWM, Doering was named team captain. Before being promoted to head coach at MSOE, Doering served as an assistant coach for one year.

Aaron Bushong, Assistant Coach

Aaron Bushong is in his third season as MSOE's pitching coach. Bushong played four seasons at University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. When he graduated in 2004 he left UWM as the school's career leader in games started.

Rick Angell, Assistant Coach

Rick Angell is going on his fifth season as an assistant coach at MSOE. He started his playing career at Triton College in 1997 where he achieved MVP honors in region IV. After one season at Triton, Angell earned a scholarship to play at Indiana State. It the 1998-1999 season Rick earned 1st team All-Missouri Valley Conference honors, first team Midwest region and newcomer of the year. After college Rick played four seasons of professional baseball with the Texas Rangers.
