Courses that have incomplete or NR grades that must be resolved.

The Student Life Office will hold a meeting in approximately the sixth week of the quarter regarding the graduation ceremony, cap and gown, invitations, etc.

Please note the graduation deadlines, which are on the Registrar's Office Web site. If you apply before the deadline, we will make every effort to review your graduation requirements prior to the close of registration of the term in which you will graduate. If you have had any courses waived or substituted by your adviser or program director, please have him/her forward the appropriate documentation to the Registrar's Office for your official file.
